Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 5, 2021

Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs to the kingdom? — James 2:5

A few years ago I got a gift of a pair of socks for Christmas. Embossed on them was: "Selective Hearing Specialist" At times, we can all be specialists and only hear what we want to hear. The man in the Gospel had no choice. He was deaf! In biblical times there were no medical procedures or foundations to help the deaf. The deaf man lived in a world of silence devoid of the spoken word. In contrast, most of our lives are full of endless chatter; be it from the TV, radio, our phones or other communication devices. With endless noise we can do damage to our hearing. We are either being bombarded with noise or are actively seeking it out. Some might say we have an addiction to noise. It drowns out our own thoughts and opportunities for meaningful reflection. We may not be deaf, but we don't listen. We are afraid of silence!

The Lord speaks to all of us, as surely as the talked to the man in the Gospel. This story is a story of gentleness, love and privacy. The Lord gently takes the man aside. He takes him away from the gossips, the gawkers, the thrill seekers who gathered around him. Jesus wants to be alone with him. This man, although deaf and having a speech impediment was important to Jesus. He respects his privacy. Jesus gave the man his full attention. In that moment nobody else mattered. Jesus touched him; touched his ear and his tongue! He touched his heart. In that intimate space of silence, in the presence of Jesus, away from the noise and the chatter of his followers, something wonderful happened. The deaf man heard for the first time. All that was needed for that to happen, was a quiet time with Jesus. Would that we, in our deafness, hear Jesus say to us, "Be opened!"

~Fr. Joe

RECLAIMING OUR UNITY
Even the smallest act of service, the simplest act of kindness, is a way to honor those we lost, a way to reclaim that spirit of unity that followed 9/11.
