

4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

“Whoever enters through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens it for him, and the sheep hear his voice, as the shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.” - Jn 10:2-3

Fourth Sunday of Easter April 30, 2023

“I am the gate. Whoever enters through me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture.” (Jn 10:9)

April 30, 2023
4th Sunday of Easter

I recently rescued a dog. She’s a terrier and rather adorable. And she’s crazy about me. She could spend all day with me. But I’m a pastor at a parish and sometimes I leave her at the front desk of the church office. She constantly amazes me by her ability to distinguish between my voice and that of everyone else. If I say one word, even if I’m hidden around a corner, she’ll sprint toward me and jump up into my arms.

This week the readings focus our attention to the voice of the risen Jesus Christ. Comparing his disciples to sheep and himself to a shepherd, he says, “They recognize his voice.” He speaks to us and wants us to respond. When we hear his voice, we follow. Throughout this coming week, we will experience many interior promptings to receive God’s love, and to love Him in return. That’s his voice. Follow it into the safe and tender arms of Christ.

By contrast, some voices we will hear do not convey God’s concern and love for us, but rather produce fear, despair, and other harmful mischief. Jesus calls these voices those of robbers. Does an idea or thought make it harder for you to love God? If so, run away. Let it go. It is most likely not the voice of the Risen Lord. Keep waiting for him to speak. You will recognize his voice. Then run to him as fast as you can.

Father John Muir LPI

Parishioners, we hope you have enjoyed viewing our online Sunday masses. We are grateful to have been given the opportunity to provide you with this weekly Mass on YouTube. Thankfully, many parishioners have returned to church and the decision has been made to discontinue our online Mass. Fortunately, for those who are homebound there are many liturgies to be watched online from various churches locally and (inter)nationally, at anytime, day or night. Our last online Mass will be on Sunday, April 30, 2023.

CAN YOU HELP US?

Since February 1956, the St. Dunstan St. Vincent de Paul Conference has been helping those in need in our parish. Due to the generosity of the parishioners through donations, and support we have been able to continue this work for over 65 years! Our conference maintains a fully stocked pantry with food from Second Harvest Food Bank and other food donations. Currently, we assist 34 households with food monthly. Our active conference members make home visits and bring grocery bags full of food and gift cards to our neighbors. We also help out with clothing, sundries, prescriptions, furniture and in emergency situations with rent and utility payments. Thanks to the TERESA Committee Giving Trees in recent years we have been fortunate to be able to supply our clients with Christmas gifts. Active members attend meetings on the 3rd Tuesday of every month, to discuss home visits and current Vincentian news and events. We welcome new members. For more information about our SVdP Conference please contact DeDee (650 303-7382) or come to a meeting at the Convent at 6:30 on the third Tuesday of the month.
