11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Then he summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits to drive them out and to cure every disease and every illness. (Mt 10:1)

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the backyard of the house where I live with other priests, there is a lemon tree which produces a huge amount of fruit. One evening in the spring I needed some lemons for a chicken dish. I glanced from the kitchen and saw the tree bursting with large, bright, gorgeous lemons, hanging thick on seemingly every branch. Turning to Fr. Bob (I'll change his name to protect the innocent) who sat on the couch, I said, "Father, could you pick a few lemons for me?" He said sure and into the backyard he went. He returned a few minutes later empty-handed. "John, there's no lemons. Sorry." I said, "What are you talking about?" I looked again and saw the grapefruit tree on the other side of the yard, which had recently been picked clean of fruit. He didn't see the abundant fruit because he was looking in the wrong place!

Like Fr. Bob, we sadly don't see the fruit all around us. We think that the culture is spiraling down, young people avoid church, and the future looks bleak. Why go out into the world and work? The world looks like a fruitless tree. Jesus doesn't see things that way. This week he tells us, "The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few." Look again: there is spiritual fruit hanging all around us! The lonely ready to be visited. The sick ready to be healed. The forgotten ready to be remembered. The poor ready to be treated with dignity. The sad ready to be consoled. The young ready for the Gospel. So, let's ask the Lord to send laborers to get to work. And he will. He might send you and me. Just remember to look at the correct trees.

St. Dunstan Parish Prayer

God, our Father, we are all your children. Jesus, our Brother, you taught us to love. Holy Spirit, by Your Light, may our parish family grow. St. Dunstan, pray for us.

St. Dunstan Liturgy Committee would like to ask each parishioner to consider volunteering to be a Lector and/or Eucharistic Minister. We are happy and able to work around your schedule to find the Mass that is most convenient for you to aid with. We publish the schedule every other month so you know your dates of service in advance and can plan accordingly. For all new volunteers, a training session(s) will be scheduled, to prepare you for your ministry.

Ministers of the Word or Lectors, Otherwise known as the reader, the lector reads the lesson from Sacred Scripture, except the Gospel, in mass and for other sacred celebrations. Lectors need a good, strong voice to proclaim before the congregation. If you are interested in donating your time, please free to call the rectory 650.697.4730 or speak with one of our parish priests.

Archdiocesan Annual Appeal Update....

To date, we have received $57,000 from parishioners for the 2023 Archdiocesan Annual Appeal. St. Dunstan's assessment this year is $112,258. Thank you to all who have contributed.

If you have not donated to this year's appeal, please consider doing so.

The Retrouvaille community will host an in-person healing retreat for couples in July. If you are not familiar with them, they are a worldwide ministry for couples in difficult marriages. They claim a success rate of over 75% for couples to heal and improve their marriages. For more information call 510-709-6063.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!!

God, We thank you for the gift of Dads in this life. We thank you that you are the greatest Dad ever, Abba Father, and we know that you cover us in your great love.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK
Without cost we have received, without cost we are to give. Do we open our hearts to one another with the same reckless love and mercy that God opens His heart to us? How quickly the world could change if we did.
