Third Sunday of Easter

May 1, 2022

"Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches, wisdom and strength, honor and glory and blessing. — Revelation 5:12

What a beautiful setting we have in the Gospel this weekend. On a beach, with a charcoal fire, the Risen Christ calls Peter. Just a few days before, in the darkness of night, beside another charcoal fire, Peter with curses and oaths had denied he ever knew Jesus. Now in the early morning light of Lake Tiberius, two wounded hearts meet. Jesus knew exactly how Peter felt and offered him an opportunity to proclaim his love and loyalty. We hear of Peter listening shamefacedly to the three probing questions of Jesus. "Do you love Me? Jesus wants him to manifest a capacity to love, that is deeper than all of the other Apostles. Jesus wants Peter to look after and to feed his brothers and sisters with the food of the Word of Life.

Peter came to know Christ's loving forgiveness through failure. On the beach, remembering the charcoal fire of denial, Peter brings his bluster and self confidence to its knees. He steps off the boat empty-handed. All he is bringing to the Lord is his failures. He once relied on himself and failed miserably. Often, failure can be the finger of God pointing the way, awakening within us an awareness of our own helplessness and our own deep capacity to love. Peter was not condemned, he was not banished from the presence of Christ. In the presence of Christ, aware of his own failure, Peter became a true follower. The Risen Lord poured love into his heart to share with others. Jesus does not want us to live in the past; or linger in what might have been, he wants us to live in the present, in His presence.

Fr. Joe

MOTHER'S DAY – MAY 8, 2022 – IS CATHOLIC CHARITIES SUNDAY

For more information, contact Sunil Prasad at sprasad@CatholicCharitiesSF.org

The second collection on Mother's Day weekend May 7-8, 2022 at all parishes in the Archdiocese of San Francisco is an opportunity for parishioners to help support low-income mothers who are forced to make difficult choices between daily essentials such as housing, food, medicine, and childcare. With your help, Catholic Charities provides life-affirming services so mothers and everyone in need can flourish. Please give generously and dedicate your Mother's Day donation to at-risk mothers and all those seeking hope and support in our community.
