Sixth Sunday of Easter May 14, 2023

"If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot accept because it neither sees nor knows him." (Jn 14:15-17)

May 14, 2023
6th Sunday of Easter

My dad was adopted as a baby. It's a big part of my family's story. His birth mother placed him in a Catholic orphanage not long after birth. A young couple longing for a baby strolled among the bassinets. My father, then only a few months old, looked at the husband and smiled. The man said, "That's my son." They took him home and the family grew. This moment of adoption was a wonderful truth they celebrated even when my dad was a young boy. They told him, "You're even more special than the other children, because we chose you to be our son." My dad's eyes well up with tears of gratitude whenever he tells the story, even eighty-three years later.

What is your story? Do we think or act like unwanted orphans? Who do we believe ourselves to be? As we continue to ponder Jesus' resurrection, we hear him say to us this Sunday, "I will not leave you orphans." God doesn't leave us alone like spiritual orphans. The power that raised Jesus from the dead is the Holy Spirit, who is also called the Spirit of Adoption. He chooses us to be His children, to share God's life forever. He gives us a future filled with hope.

We are not orphans anymore! This Easter, that's the story we should share with others. It's the true story we are living right now.

Father John Muir LPI

St. Dunstan Parish Prayer
God, our Father, we are all your children. Jesus, our Brother, you taught us to love. Holy Spirit, by Your Light, may our parish family grow. St. Dunstan, pray for us.

Wishing all Mothers a very special Mother's Day this Sunday. We recognize the very special role of a mother, especially in the lives of our Parish Family!

We pray for God's blessing on all mothers; our mothers both living and dead, spiritual mothers, godmothers, foster mothers, stepmothers. We especially pray for women who long to be mothers or who have lost children in miscarriage and stillbirth or have experienced the death of a child after birth no matter what age. We entrust the care of all mothers to Mary, the mother of our Lord, who understands the joys and sorrows of motherhood. Amen.

Prayers of Protection for Our Men and Woman in the Service In continued prayerful support of our men and women in the military, please call the rectory with name, rank, and branch of service and location (if allowed) of your loved ones who are serving our country.

CAN YOU HELP US?

Since February 1956, the St. Dunstan St. Vincent de Paul Conference has been helping those in need in our parish. Due to the generosity of the parishioners through donations, and support we have been able to continue this work for over 65 years! Our conference maintains a fully stocked pantry with food from Second Harvest Food Bank and other food donations. Currently, we assist 34 households with food monthly. Our active conference members make home visits and bring grocery bags full of food and gift cards to our neighbors. We also help out with clothing, sundries, prescriptions, furniture and in emergency situations with rent and utility payments. Thanks to the TERESA Committee Giving Trees in recent years we have been fortunate to be able to supply our clients with Christmas gifts. Active members attend meetings on the 3rd Tuesday of every month, to discuss home visits and current Vincentian news and events. We welcome new members. For more information about our SVdP Conference please contact DeDee (650 303-7382) or come to a meeting at the Convent at 6:30 on the third Tuesday of the month.

We pray for the sick members of our parish family and for those who care for them:
