They that are planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God. —Psalm 92:14

THE MASTER STORYTELLER

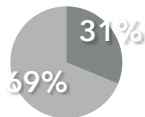

In today's Gospel, Jesus is presented to us as the master storyteller. He loved to use parables as a tool for comparing one thing to something else. In most of his parables, Jesus revealed who God is by comparing God's essence or actions with something familiar to his listeners. In the parable of the mustard seed, Jesus proclaims a marvelous and irrefutable truth. His small band of disciples, as insignificant as they may have felt, would one day produce a mighty kingdom whose growth was initiated by God. The seeds of this kingdom were planted by God and it is God who will harvest the fruit brought forth from those seeds. The extent of the growth of God's kingdom cannot be predicted. We must trust the work of the Master's hand as we, the mustard plant, grow and grow.

Volunteers Needed: We need volunteers to serve as Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers for all weekday and Sunday Masses. If you are interested in pursuing either or both of these ministries, please contact Ann at the Parish Office.

- Lectors need a strong, articulate voice. Training is required.
- Eucharistic Ministers prayerfully serve the people of St. Dunstan's by distributing the Body and Blood of Christ during Eucharistic celebrations. Training is required.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY to all dads of the Parish!

God our Father, We give you thanks and praise for fathers young and old.

We pray for young fathers, newly embracing their vocation; May they find courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice.

We pray for our own Fathers around the world whose children are lost or suffering; May they know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow.

We pray for men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with fatherly love and advice.

We remember fathers, grandfather, and great grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love. Amen

The weekend of June 23 & 24, 2018, the Little Sisters of the Poor will be visiting our Parish, giving us the opportunity to share their ministry in caring for the elderly poor. The Little Sisters care for 86 elderly residents in 'St. Anne's Home' in San Francisco, and most of their financial support comes from the generosity of people like you, beloved brothers and sisters in Christ. Any assistance you are able to give will be deeply appreciated. To know more about the work and life of the Little Sisters, you can click on their website at www.littlesistersofthepoorsanfrancisco.org.

Congratulations to the graduating class of 2018 of St. Dunstan School. We wish you all great success in high school. Don't forget your roots! Please come back and visit us often! God bless you and your families.

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Chicken or the Egg?

Remember when it was easy to tell the good guys from the bad guys? The Pharisee in today's Gospel thought he knew who was bad and who was good. He looked at the woman who came to see Jesus and saw a sinner. Jesus saw a loving person who needed forgiveness. Her love for Jesus brought her to forgiveness: "Her many sins have been forgiven because she has shown great love. But the one to whom little is forgiven, loves little" (Luke 7:47). But when Jesus explains this in a parable, he seems to be saying that forgiveness is the cause of love. So which came first, love or forgiveness?

Like the question about the chicken or the egg, the answer is both: forgiveness leads to love for God, but God's love is the source of all forgiveness. So the woman in the Gospel loved Jesus because she trusted in God's forgiveness. Jesus responded to that love by forgiving her sins.

Notice how Jesus compares the woman and the Pharisee. By pointing out how little the Pharisee did to welcome Jesus, he reminds the man that he is a sinner, too. But the man doesn't recognize his own sins and so does not ask for forgiveness. That's why the woman experiences Jesus' love, while the Pharisee does not. Luke emphasizes this with the mention of other women whom Jesus had cured or from whom he had cast out demons. They would have been seen by the Pharisee as sinners, since the Jews believed that illness was punishment for sin. Yet they are the ones who support Jesus in his journeys.

Like the chicken or the egg, we might come to see God's love on a retreat or at a parish mission. Touched by that love, we seek forgiveness. On the other hand, we may feel that God is far from us because of our sins, but when we finally get the courage to confess them, we are filled with the joy of freedom from our sins. We have the opportunity to experience Jesus' love when we ask for his forgiveness. Or we can pretend to be without sin and miss out on that love. God loves all sinners, but only the ones who admit it are able to experience that love.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The reign of God comes about because people commit to reversing their lives completely, to embracing new vision, new values. Many popular television shows exploit an unattractive side of human nature by pitting contestants against one another, even to the point of performing dangerous stunts or devious schemes, to gain money or favor.

At the liturgy, we counter that impulse by committing ourselves to live generously. In response to Christ's total gift, we offer bread and wine as the emblems of our lives, our hopes, our joys and sorrows. The bread and wine carried to the altar contain our lives, and by offering our lives to God, we prepare to receive the gift of God's own life. We are to become what we receive: the body of Christ.

On Sundays, this selfgiving is often accompanied by a collection and procession of gifts for the poor and money for the upkeep of the parish. There are certainly other methods of collecting money, some perhaps more efficient. Yet the acts of giving from our abundance and attending to the needs of the poor open us up to participation in the changes the Reign of God requires. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
