Third Sunday of Easter April 18, 2021

You alone, O LORD, bring security to my dwelling. — Psalm 4:9

FROM THE PASTOR...

In the Sacrament of Reconciliation the priest raises his hands over the penitent and prays in part, 'through the ministry of the church may God give you pardon and peace and I absolve you of your sins...' Sometimes I feel all we want to hear is that we are absolved and our sins are forgiven. And they are! But in our haste we may not hear the gift of peace given in the sacrament.

When the risen Lord appeared to his disciples on Easter Sunday morning he greeted them with the gift of peace. They had all gone astray like sheep; cowards to the core. They had deserted Jesus, their friend, in his time of need. They had professed that they would die with him. When the time came to show courage, they failed. Peter, the designated leader, denied knowing him three times. The risen Lord did not point the finger of accusation at Peter. He offered them all the gift of peace. "Peace be with you" he said to them as he stood among them. In the reading from the Acts of the Apostles, Peter could be talking about himself, "You (and I, Peter) denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked that a murderer be released to you. The author of life you (and I Peter) put to death.."

Peter did a terrible thing, yet the Lord forgave him. Peter's sin did not define him or keep him locked into his past. Jesus set him free from his sin of denial. He also sets us free from the weight of our sins. The gift of the Resurrection proclaims that there is no sin unforgivable. There is no unsurmountable barrier to keep the Lord out of our lives. He wants to enter and say to us, "Peace be with you."

~Fr. Joe

sfarch.org/cslewis

The School of Pastoral Ministry at the Archdiocese of San Francisco is excited to share that Dr. Peter Kreeft will be teaching a five-part online course on some of C.S. Lewis's lesser known works of fiction and non-fiction. C.S. Lewis is probably most famous in the United States for his series "The Chronicles of Narnia," which was turned into a 1.5 billion dollar film franchise. Lesser known is the fact that C.S. Lewis was also one of the greatest Christian apologists to have ever lived. This course will explore six of his most powerful and life-changing books: Surprised by Joy, Mere Christianity, The Problem of Pain, A Grief Observed, Till We Have Faces, and The Great Divorce. Register now at the link above. A $25 donation is requested, but no one will be turned down for inability to pay. Contact Deacon Totah for more information, above.

Third Sunday of Easter Fault or Fate?

Peter seems to be pretty tough with his listeners in the first reading. He says they handed Jesus over, denied him before Pilate, asked for a murderer to be released in his place, and put Jesus to death. They must have thought they were doomed. Suddenly, he tells them they were just ignorant. And that God had planned all this long ago. So is he saying Jesus' death is their fault, or just fate?

The answer of course is that it's everyone's fault. Our sins are the reason for Jesus' death. We deny Jesus when we choose to be selfish instead of loving. We hand him over when we tell ourselves we are too busy to take time to pray. We ask for Barabbas to be freed instead of Jesus when we insist on doing things our own way rather than God's way. We crucify Jesus when we follow the crowd instead of following the Lord.

It is only "fate" in the sense that our sins needed to be forgiven and God plan's for salvation was through Jesus' death and resurrection. Does that mean our sins cause something in the past to happen? There were sinners long before Jesus' time and God knew there would be sinners after that. God also planned to forgive anyone who repented their sins. In one sense, Jesus died for those who deserved to be punished for sin, and also for those who would deserve punishment in the future. He rose from the dead to show that God's forgiveness raises us up from guilt to a new life.

Peter wasn't laying a guilt trip on the listeners. After all, this is good news. God planned all this to show how much he loved us. Our response should be one of joy that we are forgiven because of that love. All we have to do is tell God we are sorry, mean it, and start living our response of love. Sins may be our fault, but Love is our fate.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The month of May has not only good weather, but an interesting pedigree. It is named after the Roman goddess Maia, said to be the mother of Hermes, or Mercury. The Romans saw it as "love's month," while in England, more practical farmers called it "Three Milks," since the cows grazing on springtime's bounty could produce at a phenomenal rate.

Old customs die hard, and Christians have never made peace with Maytime frolics. No wonder that popular tradition dedicated the month's prayers and devotions to Mary, although we cannot lose sight of the fact that the liturgy always has Easter at the center of celebration. Recent developments have enriched Mary's place in a cycle of feast days woven through the whole year, dedicated Saturday as a weekly day for devotion, and highlighted Mary's role in the Advent story. In fact, every day of the year Evening Prayer centers on the singing of Mary's Cantic of Praise. The fifty days of Easter culminate on Pentecost with Mary, present of course for Christ's birth, waiting in the upper room for the birth of the church.
