Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons. (Mk 1:34)

February 4, 2024 | 5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Maybe I'm weird, but I like spending time in doctor's offices, confession lines in churches, auto repair shops, prison cells, and support groups of various kinds. It's refreshing to be with people who humbly admit something is wrong and forthrightly set out on a path toward a solution. When we ignore what is off kilter, we become alone and fragile. In places where people are honest and hopeful about brokenness, sturdy if subtle fellowship usually ensues.

Consider the image we see of Jesus in the Gospel of Mark. "...they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by a demon. The whole town was gathered at the door." The entire human community is afflicted in various ways, and so it gradually forms a strange new community around Jesus. The healer from Nazareth is like a sun of health around which orbits a throng of humanity absorbing his healing rays. These blessed souls can't fix themselves and become healthy, and they know it. But they have found in him the living source of all imaginable healing.

It's the Church, isn't it? A sin-sick community gathered and healed is what happens at the beginning of every Mass. We shuffle in through the door from everywhere and announce that we are not okay, and we can't fix it. In doing so, we are drawn into the orbit of the healing power of Christ — and into a renewed community with the whole human family. It's nothing to fear or rush. Maybe we can even learn to enjoy more how good it is to be in such a happy place.

SAINTS AND SPECIAL OBSERVANCES

- Thursday: St. Jerome Emiliani; St. Josephine Bakhita, Virgin
- Saturday: St. Scholastica, Virgin

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of our Lenten journey. We mark our foreheads with an ash cross and, as that cross is marked, we are reminded of our sins. As we are marked by Jesus' sacrifice; we are drawn to the realization that "we are dust, and to dust we shall return" (Genesis 3:19). On Ash Wednesday and throughout the season of Lent, we also focus on our sins, on repentance, and on our broken world; seeing how we and all of creation has fallen far short of God's intention and glory. But we do not despair because we look to the certain hope that is ours through the forgiveness of our sins given to us freely by God's grace through faith in Jesus.

Masses at St. Dunstan on Ash Wednesday, February 14 will be celebrated at 6:30 am, 8 am, 11 am, & 5:10 pm. Ashes will be distributed during each mass. At 7:00 pm join us for liturgy of the Word with distribution of ashes.

We pray for the sick members of our parish family and for those who care for them:
