The Baptism of the Lord January 10, 2021

All you who are thirsty, come to the water!

— Isaiah 55:1

FROM THE PASTOR...

On the banks of the Jordan, Jesus is indistinguishable from those around him. He is the anonymous one in the crowd. He is the village man, the carpenter, the neighbor, the wage earner and protector his mother. Jesus looks like so many other people at the Jordan River. He steps into the public arena and stands alongside the gathered sinners. All is changed! His life will not be his own anymore. Jesus leaves behind his private life and begins his public ministry.

Last week we celebrated the Epiphany of the Lord. Today it is not the infant Jesus who is revealed but the grown man from Nazareth. As he emerged from the waters of the Jordan a voice came from the heavens, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased."

The baptism of Jesus was not a cleansing of sin (he is the sinless one). Jesus stands in solidarity with the human race. He not only accepted the human condition, he plunged into the abyss of man's refusal to accept God as a loving, forgiving Father. He went to the dark corner of the human soul that refuses to accept love as the foundation of life. His cry of pain from the cross penetrated the cold and darkest corner of the universe and new life was born. Love conquered death and Jesus was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father. Jesus stood in solidarity with the sinners at the Jordan. He became one of us, so that we could become like him. He stands with us. By our baptism, into his life death and resurrection we have touched divinity. The voice calls us, 'my beloved daughter, my beloved son'. That is who we are!

~Fr. Joe

Archbishop Requests Participation in Day of Prayer for Legal Protection of the Unborn

Valerie Schmalz, Director, Office of Human Life and Dignity
415-614-5572 schmalzv@sfarch.org
sfarch.org/legal-protection-unborn

"Dear Faithful People of God of the Archdiocese of San Francisco, please join with me to pray and to do penance on January 22, the day that the U.S. bishops have designated the "Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children."

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal, no. 373, states: 'In all the Dioceses of the United States of America, January 22 (or January 23, when January 22 falls on a Sunday) shall be observed as a particular day of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion.'

The 1973 Roe v. Wade decision is a harsh marker of the 'throwaway culture' that Pope Francis decries. There have been more than 56 million abortions since Roe v. Wade. It is unimaginable that so many little human lives have been lost or to envision the tremendous damage inflicted upon the children's mothers, fathers and families.

In Scripture, God calls us over and over again to pray and repeatedly reminds us that he will answer our prayers. On this day, we call on him particularly to remedy this great evil. I will be offering the Mass at noon at the Cathedral of St. Mary of the Assumption on January 22. The Mass will also be live-streamed. Each parish is encouraged to offer a noon Mass or the regular weekday Mass for that intention, using the liturgy recommended by the U.S. bishops in designating this special day.

By offering Mass in our parishes on this day for this particular intention, we will pray together but in safer smaller and separate gatherings for the restoration of the right to life for all, from conception to natural death. For those who are not able to attend Mass, please pray particularly for this intention in some other way. More information available at sfarch.org/legal-protection-unborn.

Thank you for your prayers as we continue together to work with God's grace to transform our culture for life."

The Baptism of the Lord

It may seem obvious that the theme for the Baptism of the Lord is “water,” but when one spends time with the readings today, one can see many different connotations for that water and its power. Isaiah calls the poor who are thirsty and tired to come to the water and take the spiritual food and drink that will be provided if we but seek the Lord. Here, God is both destination and consolation. The responsorial psalm follows suit with the image of drawing water from the springs of salvation. 1 John takes us to the reality of Christ as eucharist: not only Jesus’ birth and baptism, but his death, as we hear that Jesus came “by water and by blood.” The Gospel depicts John baptizing Jesus with water, and the Spirit baptizing Jesus. We experience both the humanity and the divinity of Christ. Indeed, water has much power to save us.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Valentine’s cards have appeared at the shopping mall, but in the Church it is still Christmas. Today’s feast spun off from Epiphany. Originally, a blessing of holy water was an important feature of the Epiphany feast, and in the Greek Church, this was a day for leaping into the sea in grateful recollection of baptism. The gratitude may not be quite as profound among the Orthodox Christians who have to chop holes in the ice to plunge into the waters!

Still, there are few better days to celebrate a baptism, and to plunge our hands into the waters of the font. Jesus found the waters of the Jordan irresistible because of what had been done in those waters: people had confessed their sins, and had acknowledged their need to be forgiven and healed. Today, we are the people in the water, and Christ comes to be with us. You won’t have to chop a hole in the ice to celebrate your baptism. A beautiful bowl of water on the table tonight, a toast with sparkling water at dinner, or even a leap into the shower with a sign of the cross and a prayer of thanksgiving will suffice!
