Feast of the Baptism of the Lord

Gospel: Matthew 3:13-17

Instructions: While attending mass listen to the gospel and then read the gospel reflection. Answer the following questions and turn in your answers with a bulletin from the mass.

Gospel Reflection

The baptism of Jesus is another epiphany, a moment of revelation. In this baptism, the Trinity is revealed (the voice of God the Father, the person of Jesus Christ, and the dove). Jesus' baptism opens the door for all of us to participate in the life of God. We have been called to the same baptismal waters. In Baptism, we receive a new life in Christ – we put on Christ, like a garment – and are made into sons and daughters of God, in whom he is well pleased.

Gospel Questions

1. How do you "put on Christ" in your life?

2. How often do you recognize times when you have experienced God's favor and love?
What can help you become more conscious every day of God acting in your life?

3. What can you do to help others become more aware of God's love?

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Gospel: John 1:29-34

Instructions: While attending mass listen to the gospel and then read the gospel reflection. Answer the following questions and turn in your answers with a bulletin from the mass.

Gospel Reflection

John the Baptist had already given up all that he owned, travelling around and preaching repentance of sins. This day, when he was surrounded by his followers (the fruit of his work and sacrifice) he looked toward Jesus and sent them all to follow Jesus. John showed great humility as a witness to Christ, giving up every remnant of his accomplishments in service of God. Like John, it is our call to direct our successes, achievements, and glory back to God, that we may make him known in all we do.

Gospel Questions

1. How would you respond if someone asked you, "Whose disciple are you?"
2. Explain how Jesus is the Lamb of God.
3. In what ways can you direct your successes, achievements, and glory back to God? How can you make Him known in all that you do?

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Gospel: Matthew 4:13-17

Instructions: While attending mass listen to the gospel and then read the gospel reflection. Answer the following questions and turn in your answers with a bulletin from the mass.

Gospel Reflection

During the winter in North America, the days are short and the hours in the dark are long. The world is full of suffering and death, wars and famines, poverty and addiction, violence and despair. It is easy to feel worn down by the darkness. But the light of God dawned upon the world at the darkest time of year. Light and life and hope have arisen. Our hope was born in Bethlehem and he is still being born in our hearts and in our lives, bringing light to dark places.

Gospel Questions

1. In what ways is your faith a "light" to you? Where is there darkness that needs light?

2. When have you made a new beginning? How can you make a new beginning today in some area of your life?

3. What did Jesus mean when He said, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand"? How can you practice this in your daily life?
