Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

They were filled with great awe and said to one another,
“Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?” (Mk 4:41)

June 23, 2024 Twelfth Sunday Ordinary Time

Right now, you and I are only worried about one of only two things: wind or water. Bear with me. This week we hear the account of the terrified disciples waking Jesus in a sea-storm. He chastises them for their lack of faith, and then, “rebuking the wind, he said to the sea, ‘Quiet, be still!’” He rebukes the wind and stills the water. In the Bible wind and water represent the two most fundamental poles of our experience of creation. Wind means heaven, spirit, that which gives identity, unity, order, light. Water stands for earth, variation, potential, that which can be drawn into identity, darkness, chaos.

Too much “wind” is when things get way too rigid, abstract and ideological — when we face oppressive leaders and tyrants, when we get addicted to our own way of doing things, when our attention is too narrowly focused on one thing. Too much “water” is excessive novelty, passivity, indifference, and chaos — when our attention is too broadly diffused on many things, when things seem to be crumbling without direction into the dark abyss. We know both terrifying experiences all too well.

The point of the miracle is that God in Christ is the One who brings final cosmic harmony between these two vital but threatening forces. He ultimately does so from the wood of the cross, when he breathes forth the wind of his spirit and pours forth the water from his side to establish a new creation, filled with harmonious peace. When the wind and water are out of control, trust him.

St. Dunstan Parish Prayer

God, our Father, we are all your children. Jesus, our Brother, you taught us to love. Holy Spirit, by Your Light, may our parish family grow. St. Dunstan, pray for us. Amen.

ARCHDIOCESAN ANNUAL APPEAL

Thank you to all who have donated to this year’s annual appeal. Our assessment this year is $108,872. To date we have received $67,295; which is 62% of our goal. Once again, we thank you! If you have not yet contributed to this year’s appeal, please consider doing so. There are envelopes in the church pews or you can donate directly online at www.sfarch.org/aaa/

“Our mission as a Church and as people of the Catholic faith continues, and the needs are ongoing, so I ask you to participate in this year’s Annual Appeal. Your contribution is a tangible expression of your commitment to bring Christ to others.” -Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone

A Message from the Little Sisters of the Poor...

Today, the Little Sisters of the Poor will be visiting our Parish, giving us the opportunity to share their ministry in caring for the elderly poor. The little Sisters care for 80 elderly residents in ‘St. Anne’s Home’ in San Francisco, and most of their financial support comes from the generosity of people like you, beloved brothers and sisters in Christ. Any assistance you are able to give will be deeply appreciated. To know more about the work and life of the Little Sisters, you can click at their website at www.littlesistersofthepoorsanfrancisco.org

This program is for couples with marital problems that want marriage help. Those who are considering marriage separation and those who are already separated or divorced are encouraged to consider the Retrouvaille Program. There is always hope of reviving your relationship. Some couples come to Retrouvaille during the initial signs of a marriage problem. Other couples are in a state of despair and hopelessness when they attend the program. The next SF Retrouvaille weekend is July 19-21 in Mountain View, Ca. To sign up or for more information call 415.893.1005 or email SF@RetroCA.com.
