January 26, 2025 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

He said to them,
"Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." (Lk 1:21)

January 26, 2025 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 1:1-4, 4:14-21

A young couple in my parish told me they were expecting their second child, a baby boy. I knew that their five-year old only child Emma had been desperately wanting to be a big sister for years, so I said, "Emma must have been so happy when you told her the news." "Actually," they said, "she burst into tears. She wanted a baby sister!" How often in life God wonderfully fulfills our desires and we are sad because we don't approve of the way he does it. We want to control the gift and the delivery method.

The same thing occurs in the Gospel this week when Jesus announces in his hometown that the promise of an Anointed One bringing glad tidings to the poor is "fulfilled in your hearing" (Luke 4:21). After a moment of elation, his fellow townfolk realize this man is the way God is fulfilling his promises, and they erupt into a violent outburst. So Jesus departs. How sad for them.

Every single Sunday at Mass, including this one, some version of this happens to many of us. God's word announces the fulfillment of God's promises in Christ, and we easily overlook or disdain it. His way is almost never according to our narrow expectations. What's required of us is to set these aside, and to embrace a new openness to God's gifts, no matter how he wishes to give them. God is fulfilling his promises the way He likes — why be sad?

— Father John Muir

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Jesus is the fulfillment of the Scripture passage he reads in the synagogue, a missive of promise and hope from an ancient prophet. But he invites us to be part of his work, here and now, in our own lives, our own communities. Be part of the fulfillment.

Hallow is the world's #1 prayer app for your phone or tablet, and it is built by and for Catholics. It can instruct newcomers on how pray, guide Catholics in everything from meditation to novenas, and help build a routine and habit of prayer for all its users.

Hallow premium, which comes with extra content like daily reflections, saint of the day, and even audiobooks and music, is typically $10 per month. All parishioners in the Archdiocese who sign up for the app by June will receive one full year of Hallow premium, for just $1.
