July 6, 2025 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Nevertheless, do not rejoice because the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice because your names are written in heaven." (Lk 10:20)

July 6, 2025 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

In the days after the awful 2020 killing of George Floyd, a Catholic friend remarked, "Racism is today's great evil. We should put all our energy into fighting it." I admired her intuition that the church must stand firmly against evil. Amen, I thought. At the same time, something felt wrong. As months went by, I saw her steadily slide into bitterness and anger. Soon, despondency. She spoke of giving up the fight. Don't we too wonder how to fight evil without losing our joy or energy?

Jesus' words this week help. He says, "Rejoice not that you have power over demons, but that your names are written in heaven" (Luke 10:20). Notice the asymmetry in where he wants our focus: on the latter, not the former. Should we confidently embrace our God-given power to overcome evil? Absolutely. But even more so, we should emphasize the positive element of our relationship to God. It is tempting but dangerous to define ourselves by what we oppose. It is better to define ourselves by—to rejoice in—what we celebrate: in Jesus, God has written our names in heaven. This sustains our battles.

This week, our marching orders are: fight evil. But more deeply, rejoice that God knows and loves us personally, individually. We allow this joyful knowledge to undergird our fight against the darkness of our day. Then we enjoy long-term stability to be cheerful warriors, who never forget the reason for the contests we are called to fight and win: love.

— Father John Muir

St. Dunstan Parish Prayer

*God, our Father, we are all your children.
Jesus, our Brother, you taught us to love.
Holy Spirit, by Your Light, may our Parish family grow.
St. Dunstan, pray for us. Amen.*

Please join us in welcoming Fr. Gervais Lévis Kamwa Kouam, Vincentian priest from St. John the Baptist Church in New York, who will reside and celebrate Mass at St. Dunstan Parish from July 1 through July 25. Please give Fr. Gervais a warm greeting when you see him at Church!

Fr. Frank Tinajero SVD will be at St. Dunstan Church on July 12-13, to celebrate masses and to speak about the many ministries of his religious community, Divine Word Missionaries. They are an international religious community of missionary priests and Brothers serving in 79 countries helping to build chapels, celebrate the sacraments and spread the Word of God in remote mission communities.

Parishioners, the 2025 Archdiocesan Annual Appeal is under way. As he sends his disciples into the world to proclaim his name, Jesus tells them to be bold. He tells them to be flexible. To be forgiving. To be faithful. As we enter this week, let's remember these instructions. It's good advice, in any century.

Mini Reflection: Too often, life falls short of my expectations — so I ball up my fists and stomp my feet. And God takes the Book of the Gospels and opens it to Luke, Chapter 10.

Please join us in the Church grotto on Saturdays at noon to pray the Rosary for world peace.*We pray for the sick members of our Parish family and for those who care for them:
