12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Matthew 10:26-33

“What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light; what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops.” (Mt 10:27)

Jean Améry, a Holocaust survivor tortured by the Nazis, later wrote about the abyss of human evil. He described his reaction as an “indignant despair.” Haven’t we all, to some degree, felt that abyss opened beneath us? A sudden loss, a violent headline, a moment of loneliness or panic, when the world feels fragile and meaning seems to collapse?

It is to this fear that Jesus speaks in today’s Gospel: “Do not be afraid of those who can kill the body.” (Matthew 10:28) He does not deny evil or pretend we will never suffer. Instead, He reframes the abyss: do not fear those who can kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Your life is seen, known, and counted by the Father. Even the hairs of your head, even the sparrow’s fall.

This is no superficial comfort. Jesus himself has entered the abyss: suffering, death, even our sense of forsakenness, and he has come through it. That is why his words, “Do not be afraid,” hold such weight. They do not erase the abyss but build a bridge across it.

Faith is not pretending everything is fine. It is staring into the abyss and still choosing trust. And in that trust, we discover we are never alone. Christ stands with us, and the Father’s care surrounds us. That is the only comfort deep enough for our (often fearful) hearts.

Gospel Question: Jesus warns his disciples against spiritual forces that seek to destroy both the body and the soul. Where do you see malevolent spiritual forces at work in our world?

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week

“What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light.” We all hear God’s voice whispering in our hearts. Discipleship means speaking those words out loud. We all feel the Spirit sing into our souls. Discipleship means that we dance to the tune.

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

God and Father of all creation,
You are our model of a loving father.
When we fail and fall short of your expectations,
you are always there at the end of the day with open arms,
ready to heal the cuts and scrapes of the day
and to encourage us to try again and not to give up.

We hold up these men in our midst who act in the world as fathers to their children or models of fathers for others.

Bless them in their special moments with their children.

Give them warm and open hearts to forgive failures.

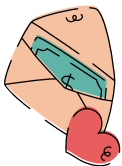

Provide them with encouragement and perseverance.

We ask all this in the name of Jesus.

Amen.

Thank you for your continued generosity and support of our parish community! To help us properly record your contributions and provide accurate annual tax statements, we ask that you use your assigned offertory envelopes for collections. If you are new to the parish, we invite you to register on our website so we can officially welcome you. During registration, please indicate if you would like to receive contribution envelopes. If you have any questions please contact the Parish Office. Thank you!

St. Francis of Assisi Relics

For the first time in 800 years, relics of Saint Francis of Assisi will be coming from Italy to the Cathedral of St. Mary of the Assumption on Friday, October 16, and will be on display for veneration through November at the Cathedral from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. More details on the SF Archdiocese webpage: sfarch.org
