THE MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST
John 6:51-58

“I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.” (Jn 6:51)

When I was a young altar server, I once overheard two very different comments about the Eucharist. One person asked, “Is Father distributing the bread or the wine?” Later, another asked, “Can you go get Jesus from the tabernacle?” Same parish, same Mass, but two very different ways of speaking. I pondered: So, is it bread that we pretend is Jesus? Or is Jesus a tiny white thing in a box? I was utterly confused.

This Feast of Corpus Christi is an excellent time to think about how we should speak about the Eucharist. In today’s Gospel, Jesus declares: “My flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink.” (John 6:55) His words scandalized his listeners, who feared cannibalism, and even today puzzle many, who reduce them to metaphor. Both miss the truth.

The Church gives us better words that honor Jesus’ words in the Gospel. After the consecration, we do not call it “bread” or “wine.” Nor do we say, “a piece of Jesus” or even “Jesus.” We say: the Eucharist. We say: the Body and Blood of Christ. We say: the Real Presence. We say: the Most Blessed Sacrament. These words safeguard the astonishing reality that Christ himself is truly present, whole and entire, under the appearances of bread and wine.

If we speak well about the Eucharist, we will think more clearly and believe more deeply. And if we believe more deeply, we will adore more truly the One who gives himself to us – not bread, not wine, but Jesus Christ himself, whole and entire.

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week

The starving Israelites found their physical salvation in manna, “a food unknown to your fathers.” We find our spiritual salvation in the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, a food unknown to too many souls. Blessed are we to partake of the Bread of Life.

WELCOME BACK!

We warmly welcome Fr. Gervais Lévis Kamwa Kouam, C.M., back to our parish next weekend! Fr. Gervais is a member of Province of Cameroon who is serving in Brooklyn, NY, and we are grateful to have him with us once again. As Fr. Joe begins his holiday, we are blessed that Fr. Gervais will be helping our parish. Please join us in extending a warm welcome and keeping both Fr. Joe and Fr. Gervais in your prayers.

Elvira Ramirez will speak at masses this weekend to share her mission experience as part of the Archdiocese of San Francisco Missionary Cooperation Plan 2026. The second collection will be taken to support Maryknoll Lay Missioners. Maryknoll Lay Missioners is one of the largest U.S. Catholic organizations sending laypeople into global mission. Over the past five decades, they have prepared and sent nearly 1,000 missionaries who have accompanied people experiencing poverty and marginalization around the world. Thank you for your generous support!
