20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Matthew 15: 21-28

Does God ignore or act a bit rough with you? Jesus crosses the border into the pagan region of Tyre and Sidon, the territory long outside the covenant. There, a Canaanite woman calls out, "Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David." At first, he is silent. Then he rebuffs her. "It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs." But the Church Fathers saw this not as an insult but as an initiation. Christ draws out of her heart a deeper faith.

She presses on. "Please, Lord, even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters." Jesus' silence and response solidify her humility and trust. She thus becomes a model for prayer for centuries of Christians. St. Augustine said she shows how sinners come to grace by moving from silence to humility to perseverance.

This woman is the Church. She is you and me. She is every soul who dares to cry out from the margins, who endures divine silence until it turns to compassion. When Jesus says, "O woman, great is your faith," it is the joyful cry of God discovering faith where the world least expects it. Even the smallest crumb of Your mercy, Lord, is enough to heal the soul. Do we have the courage to show faith like that?

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) helps adults explore the Catholic faith, with the goal of becoming full members of the Roman Catholic Church. OCIA introduces you to a relationship with Jesus Christ. Participation in OCIA leads to receiving the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and first Communion at the Easter Vigil. If you are interested or know somebody who has not received the Sacrament of Baptism or Confirmation please contact the parish office at (650) 697 4730

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week

The Canaanite woman did not take Jesus' initial refusal as rejection, but as an invitation to engage with God, to show him the depth of her faith. When our prayers are not answered as we wish, will we have the courage to do the same?
