21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Matthew 16:13-20

The first time I stood inside St. Peter's Basilica in Rome, its majesty overwhelmed me. The sheer beauty of Michelangelo's dome seemed to lift my soul right out of my body. Later, I joined the Scavi tour that winds below the basilica, down into the ancient pagan cemetery where Peter was buried. There, in the dim light and narrow passageways, I found myself looking at the bones of a murdered Jewish fisherman, his feet cut off so his crucified body could be taken down more easily.

What a paradox. Above me, the most glorious church ever built. Beneath me, the remains of a backwater fisherman. But this man dared to answer Jesus' question, "Who do you say that I am?" And crowning that immense dome above his tomb are the words from today's Gospel, "You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church."

Within you and me is the drama of the lowest and the highest. Every time we confess Christ, humbly, imperfectly, maybe even trembling, we enter that same mystery. The dust of our humanity, touched by the splendor of heaven. God's presence and our dry bones together. Humility and glory. May our lives embrace both the lowest and the highest, like that great basilica, as we profess Jesus.

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) helps adults explore the Catholic faith, with the goal of becoming full members of the Roman Catholic Church. OCIA introduces you to a relationship with Jesus Christ. Participation in OCIA leads to receiving the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and first Communion at the Easter Vigil. If you are interested or know somebody who has not received the Sacrament of Baptism or Confirmation please contact the parish office at (650) 697 4730

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week

"Who do you say that I am?" Jesus asks his apostles. Peter is the first to answer. He knows who Jesus is. Do we? In everything we do and everything we are, let us say together with Peter: "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God."

Thank you to our Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers for serving at this weekend's Masses:

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

NEW! Mass Intention Guidelines for 2027

It has come to our attention that Mass intentions have become increasingly difficult for many parishioners to schedule, mainly due to the limited number of available weekend Masses and the high volume of requests. To ensure that Mass intentions remain available fairly to all parishioners, new guidelines will take effect with the 2027 Mass Intention Book, which opens December 7, 2026.

Each individual or household may schedule up to 20 Mass intentions per calendar year, with no more than 5 weekend Masses per year and 4 weekday Masses in any calendar month (unless there is a pastoral circumstance, which is at the discretion of the Parish Office). Mass intentions are offered for one individual, whether living or deceased. When appropriate, an intention may be offered for a married couple or members of the same immediate family as a single intention.

Mass intentions may be scheduled through the Parish Office during office hours, or by phone or email. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation. —Fr. Joe
