22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Matthew 16:21-27

Do you know what it is like to be thrilled by the power of Christian faith one moment and then utterly fail in it the next? That is Peter in today's Gospel. After last week's bold confession, he now hears Jesus speak of suffering and death, and something in him recoils. He takes Jesus aside and tries to correct him. Jesus responds with the shocking rebuke, "Get behind me, Satan."

Peter is the mirror of every disciple. We love Jesus until he contradicts the script we have written for our lives. Peter does not reject Jesus. He rejects a suffering Jesus. So do we, whenever we avoid a hard responsibility, resist a demanding relationship, or cling to comfort instead of choosing love. We want a Lord who supports our plans, not one who overturns them.

Yet Jesus does not discard Peter. He redirects him. "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." In effect, Jesus says, stop trying to lead me. Let me lead you. Discipleship does not begin with heroism or clarity but with surrender. It means trusting that God's path to life often passes through places we would never choose.

Peter is all of us. We move from insight to confusion, from confidence to correction. That is why we should have hope. Jesus patiently teaches us again and again. Trust me. Get behind me. Follow me. When we stop fighting the crosses that come and start carrying them with him, we discover a freedom deeper than comfort and a love stronger than fear.

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week

Plenty of people are drawn to Jesus. Curious about him. Inspired by him. But can they carry the cross? Today, Jesus tells us that we cannot have one without the other – it is Christ and the cross, or nothing at all. Which will we choose?

A heartfelt thank you to everyone who joined me for my Golden Jubilee celebration this past Sunday. I am deeply grateful for your prayers, kind wishes, and generous gifts. It was a beautiful celebration, and I am blessed to share this milestone with our parish. God Bless you all! -Fr. Joe

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

NEW! Mass Intention Guidelines for 2027

To ensure that Mass intentions remain available fairly to all parishioners, new guidelines will take effect with the 2027 Mass Intention Book, which opens December 7, 2026. Each individual or household may schedule up to 20 Mass intentions per calendar year, with no more than 5 weekend Masses per year and 4 weekday Masses in any calendar month (unless there is a pastoral circumstance, which is at the discretion of the Parish Office). Mass intentions are offered for one individual, whether living or deceased. When appropriate, an intention may be offered for a married couple or members of the same immediate family as a single intention. Mass intentions may be scheduled through the Parish Office during office hours, or by phone or email. Thank you. -Fr. Joe Several parishioners have expressed interest in starting a Bible Study Group at St. Dunstan.

We are exploring the possibility of offering a daytime Bible study for adults in the Convent, meeting weekly or every other week.

We are currently looking for a parishioner who would be interested in leading the group and developing a simple study rooted in Catholic Scripture and Church teaching.

If you would be interested in participating or helping lead the Bible study, please contact the Parish Office at 650-697-4730.

St. Dunstan Catholic School
— is celebrating its —
75th Anniversary!

If you, a family member, or a friend attended St. Dunstan School, please contact Dr. Laura Sandoval at lsandoval@st-dunstan.org to join our mailing list and stay informed about upcoming events and celebrations.

Once a Knight, always a Knight!

Join St. Dunstan School to celebrate our 75th on September 27th with Mass at 10AM followed by food, fun and raffle in the school yard! All are welcome!

The Cathedral of Saint Mary of the Assumption will host an extraordinary Exhibition of the Holy Relics of Saint Francis of Assisi: Oct. 16 – Nov. 28. 9AM – 5PM. All are welcome!
