25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Matthew 20: 1-16

Every December, the priests of my diocese gather for a Christmas dinner with our bishop. Nearly 200 of us in one room: newly ordained and long retired, pastors of large parishes and quiet confessors, men full of energy and others moving more slowly. Some carry visible success; others bear hidden wounds. It is a tapestry of vocations and lives. When the bishop thanks us, I am always moved. For a moment, none of our differences matter. What matters is that we belong to one another.

I usually leave that evening with a deep sense of peace, but also with a sober realization. Nothing drains joy from the vineyard of the Lord faster than comparison. The quiet habit of measuring, ranking, and resenting can creep in even among those who sincerely serve God.

That is what Jesus exposes in today's parable of the workers in the vineyard. The early laborers are not upset because they were treated unjustly; they are angry because others were treated generously. Their resentment blinds them to the gift already in their hands. When the landowner asks, "Are you envious because I am generous?" he names the real wound.

This tension echoes throughout salvation history: the elder brother resenting the prodigal, the faithful servant scorning the latecomer. Jesus does not deny the labor of those who have borne the heat of the day, but he refuses to let God's mercy become a zero-sum game.

In the end, the vineyard's reward is not about fairness but belonging. The joy offered is communion with a generous Father, who delights in gathering early and late, strong and weak, into one household of grace.

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week

We have all been the wicked servant. We have denied others the same forgiveness and grace shown to us. This week, let us find new ways to make the love and mercy of God manifest in the lives of those we meet.

NEXT WEEK

Join us next Sunday for 10AM Mass followed by free food, music, and good vibes!
All are welcome!

Thank you to all who have contacted the office regarding the new Bible Study group! Your names have been recorded, and we will be in touch as soon as we identify a leader. If you are interested in leading or joining, please contact the Parish Office.

We are grateful to everyone who has already contributed to this year's Annual Appeal. We are getting close to reaching our parish goal, and hope to cross the finish line by the end of the year! If you haven't had the opportunity to participate, we invite you to prayerfully consider making a gift. Every contribution helps. Envelopes are in the pews. Thank you!
