23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Matthew 18:15–20

A few summers ago, my family had a big reunion. It included my parents, my four siblings, and all their many children. One of my favorite moments was simply watching my parents' contented faces as they took in all of us together, laughing, sharing food, singing, telling stories. They loved seeing their children happily together with each other.

That is something like the heart of God we see in today's Gospel message about Christian reconciliation. These verses come right after Jesus' parable of the lost sheep. He is not giving the disciples a cold formula for dealing with conflict. He is revealing the Father's longing for children who love and reconcile with each other. His heart aches when his children are divided and isolated.

So when Jesus says, "Go and tell your brother his fault," He is not deputizing us as morality police. He is inviting us into his mission of reconciliation. When he adds, "If he listens to you, you have won over your brother," we glimpse the real goal. Not winning arguments, but reuniting a divided family. These days, we often think religion is just between God and me. But the Father's dream is about a lively family, one in which His children forgive, gather, and rejoice together.

Lord Jesus, give me the courage to seek reconciliation where it is needed. Make my heart resemble the Father's heart, longing and working for unity among His children. Amen.

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week

Christ tells us that "where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in the midst of them." Our faith compels us to be in community with one another. No one should be a Christian alone. How can you draw closer to others who love Christ?

NEW! Mass Intention Guidelines for 2027

To ensure that Mass intentions remain available fairly to all parishioners, new guidelines will take effect with the 2027 Mass Intention Book, which opens December 7, 2026. Each individual or household may schedule up to 20 Mass intentions per calendar year, with no more than 5 weekend Masses per year and 4 weekday Masses in any calendar month (unless there is a pastoral circumstance, which is at the discretion of the Parish Office). Mass intentions are offered for one individual, whether living or deceased. When appropriate, an intention may be offered for a married couple or members of the same immediate family as a single intention. Mass intentions may be scheduled through the Parish Office during office hours, or by phone or email. Thank you. -Fr. Joe
