33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Matthew 25:14-30

"'Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.'" (Mt 25:21)

A friend once took his young adult son to the casino for his birthday. He handed him $100 and said, "Let's have a great time." The son, a graduate student with limited money, pocketed the money and refused to play. "I don't want to lose it," he said. But he missed the point: the money was not really his to pocket; it was his father's invitation to share an experience together.

God sees our gifts a bit like this. In Jesus' parable, a servant buries his master's talent and explains: "Master, I knew you were a demanding person...so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground" (Matthew 25:24-25). The master condemns him not for failure but for refusing to risk. The servant's fear distorts his image of the master and leads to a small, loveless response. No love, no risk. No risk, no relationship.

How easily we fall into this trap! We treat God's gifts as fragile possessions rather than invitations. We play it safe, avoid risk, and tell ourselves we are wise and God is cruel. But Jesus praises those who trust the Master's goodness enough to act boldly. They are not reckless but confident enough in their Master to risk their gifts for Him.

So, what is my interior story about God right now? Is it marked by generosity, adventure, and trust? Or by fear, caution, and suspicion? That hidden narrative shapes everything. Because love, by its nature, always takes risks with, and for, the beloved.

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week
God invites us to take part in the mission of the Gospel. His investment is his Body and Blood, offered for our salvation. What return will it generate? Only we can decide what to do with this great gift.

Place your All Souls' Day envelope and stipend in the basket in front of the sanctuary. Your loved ones will be remembered in prayer throughout the month of November. You may also write the names of those who have passed away in the Book of Remembrance.

Thank you to our Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers for serving at this weekend's Masses:

11/14	Saturday	5:00 PM	E Lumanlan, L Pascual, F Gutierrez, P Sundberg
11/15	Sunday	7:00 AM	V Rapues, S Bosso, I Chan
		10:00 AM	J Cardon, G Maldonado, R DiRicco
		11:30 AM	J Lazaro, L Simpao, G Simpao, K Tsih, J Roxas

Many thanks to our ushers and greeters at this weekend's Masses.
