Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 21, 2019

It is Christ whom we proclaim, admonishing everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone perfect in Christ. — Colossians 1:28b

FROM THE PASTOR

It is said that if you are rushed for time, sow time, and you will reap time. Time is a precious commodity/gift which we waste so easily. In the gospel of today we have two devoted followers of Jesus. The hardworking Martha gets irritated with the idling Mary. Martha believes that Mary should be doing something more productive than listening to Jesus. After all, if the work is not done, Jesus goes with his dinner. Mary gets the praise for apparently doing nothing. To listen attentively to another person is extremely difficult. To give your full attention while somebody is speaking is hard work. Try praying for half an hour. We have to make a real effort. Prayer does not come easy. We all know how our minds wander from the present to the future to the past and back again.

The gospel is asking us to look at our busy lives and to take time out to sit quietly with the Lord. If we do not take time to listen to the word of God and let it permeate our lives we may become slaves to our work. Time with the Lord is not wasted. It is not unproductive time. Sow time with the Lord, sit and listen to him and you will reap time for everything else.

~Fr. Joe

Faith Formation...working together for Jesus

We are sharing a note about our 3rd Grade Faith Formation class from catechist, Mrs. Pallari:

“Our 3rd Grade Faith Formation class invites all children to enter and learn about their Catholic faith through Scriptures, words, activities and discussions which will help form each student into disciples of Jesus Christ. They learn about God’s love for each of them and how valuable each one is in God’s eye.

Many of the lessons center on the Ten Commandments— loving God and their neighbors and how to make good choices. Their Catholic identity is taught through prayers, liturgical lessons, lives of Saints and family involvement.

It is my hope that each family makes an effort to re-enroll their students for all classes. Faith Formation affords each child and their family the opportunity to continue their Religious Education. Each year builds on the previous year. These building blocks lead to your child’s love of God, their neighbors and their Catholic community. It prepares them to learn their faith, but ultimately LIVE it and become disciples of Christ and share Christ’s love for us.”

The Better Part

The Gospel for this Sunday can sometimes give the impression that Jesus favored Mary over Martha. But if they had both sat down to listen, there would have been no dinner to serve to Jesus. He wasn't just saying, "Sit down and listen." He meant that just as Mary was content to listen to him, so Martha could have been content to prepare the meal for him. Instead of thinking of her work as a gift to Jesus, she was more concerned with why Mary was not helping her. Remember the first reading, in which Abraham insisted on serving the visitors, whom he came to recognize as the Lord and two angels. He was rewarded with the assurance that he would soon have a son.

So simple acts of hospitality can also be how people can welcome the Lord into their homes. Paul reminds us in the second reading that Christ is in us; the church is the body of Christ. When we welcome someone into our homes as a visitor, or into our lives as a friend, we are also welcoming Christ. When we get to know someone better, we are also getting to know Christ. When we are respectful to people who help us, like the maintenance staff, the mail carrier, the waiter, we are also showing respect for the Lord.

And what about that "better part" that Mary had chosen? Are we sometimes like Martha, with too many things on our minds to be aware of the Lord? Sometimes we can't avoid the distractions that are part of life. But if we keep the Lord on our minds, we may be able to see which are distractions to be put aside and which are opportunities to serve the Lord in a different way. Sometimes kids interrupt when we're fixing dinner--maybe they need to be taught how to take care of things by themselves, or maybe they just need a few moments of attention. We can certainly ask the Lord to help us handle distractions. And as we spend more time with the Lord in prayer, we begin to experience God's peace, which gives us the ability to choose the better part.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

There's a different pace to a summer Sunday, especially on those days when we dream of air conditioning and wave any available paper to stir the air. Yet we persist in gathering, even with so many breaks from the usual routines. We distance ourselves not only from routines, but from schedules and familiar well-worn paths. These are playful days and contemplative days. We see long-lost friends and visit almost-forgotten places. We have more leisure than any people before in the history of the world, and we need it because our lives are so care-worn and tiring. More of us walk barefoot and look up at the stars or dip our toes in the lake or sea, sing around campfires, read novels on the beach, and eat comfort food with our fingers. We see how beautiful life can be, and are more aware than usual of how God is always breaking in with signs of love.

In Genesis today, Abraham and Sarah practice hospitality to their visitors, who turn out to be God dropping in. During the summer months, God practices hospitality in return, inviting us into a season of celebration. Keeping Sunday holy is a good habit to cultivate in these days when our spirits are especially receptive to God's deep desire for us to know divine love.
